

- American Public University System
  - Founded originally in 1991 as American Military University
  - 2002 with addition of American Public University
  - 100,000 students in 50 states and over 100 countries
  - 87 undergraduate and graduate degree programs.

American Public University System
American Military University | American Public University

Educating Those Who Serve™

- Signatory to the ACUPCC (American College and University Presidents' Climate Commitment)
- For APUS, one of the many projects we've undertaken was an effort to reduce vehicular emissions.
- 2008 APUS purchased two, fully-electric vehicles for use around our Charles Town "campus".

American Public University System
American Military University | American Public University

Educating Those Who Serve™

American Public University System
American Military University | American Public University

Educating Those Who Serve™

- APUS also has offices in Manassas,
- APUS purchased a Hybrid, crew-cab pickup truck to serve the same basic needs in Manassas

American Public University System
American Military University | American Public University

Educating Those Who Serve™

American Public University System
American Military University | American Public University

Educating Those Who Serve™

American Public University System
American Military University | American Public University

Educating Those Who Serve™

- Last year, APUS undertook the construction of new offices for 400 employees
- Including solar power
  - Helping to support buildings electrical needs
  - Reducing our requirement for electricity produced by burning fossil fuels.

American Public University System
American Military University | American Public University

Educating Those Who Serve™

American Public University System
American Military University | American Public University

Educating Those Who Serve™

- Carport Solar Array
  - Covered parking,
  - Eliminating the heat-sink effect
  - Producing 407 KW of electricity

American Public University System
American Military University | American Public University

Educating Those Who Serve™

American Public University System
American Military University | American Public University

Educating Those Who Serve™

- One of the by-products was the inclusion of some 15 publicly available car-charging stations

American Public University System
American Military University | American Public University

Educating Those Who Serve™

American Public University System
American Military University | American Public University

Educating Those Who Serve™