

Cat TH360B Telehandler Operator and Maintenance Manual

1. When mounting and dismounting from the machine, you must maintain a three-point contact which may include:
 - a) Two Feet and One Hand
 - b) One Foot and Two Hands
 - c) All of the Above
2. You may still extend the Boom when the transmission control is in the REVERSE position
 - a) TRUE
 - b) FALSE
3. When the machine is operated on tires, are the machine capacities different from a machine that is operated on stabilizers?
 - a) YES
 - b) NO
4. When the machine is operating on a slope, you must position the heaviest end of the machine
 - a) Downhill
 - b) Uphill
 - c) It does not matter
5. It is OK to travel with your Boom extended if your Supervisor approves you to do so?
 - a) TRUE
 - b) FALSE
6. When the Longitudinal Stability Visual indicator enters the Amber zone and the audible alarm sounds, you should
 - a) Have a spotter help you with the load before proceeding
 - b) Get your Supervisor's approval to continue
 - c) Do not proceed with the lift and retract the boom if the boom is extended