

WEST VIRGINIA DIVISION OF HIGHWAYS
 MAINTENANCE MANUAL
 STUDY GUIDE
 CHAPTER 5

#	ANSWER	QUESTION
1		Choose the best answer: The District Radio Rooms shall report the conditions to the _____, at necessary intervals as outlined in Section 05.02.02 Operational Postures. The _____ uses the updates to compile and distribute weather briefings and summaries to Executive Management, District Offices and Central Office operations beginning November 1 and continuing through March 31. A.) WWE, B.) FBI, C.) TMC
2		Fill in the blank: During Code Blue, road condition and weather reports, if applicable, shall be reported to the TMC every ____ hours during the event. During Code Yellow, road conditions and weather reports, if applicable, shall be reported to the TMC every ____ hours during the event.
3		Fill in the blank: _____ priority routes are roads of major importance and high traffic volume, which shall be kept open to traffic to the greatest level practicable,. These routes shall consist of all Interstate and APD routes, and those major routes which connect urban areas.
4		True/False: Second priority routes are slightly less important than the first priority routes, such as school bus routes and some mail routes not included in the first priority routes. Second priority routes are covered as quickly and frequently as conditions will permit by extra equipment and personnel assigned to the maintenance of the first priority routes.
5		Choose the best answer: Plowing of roads that are to be treated with a mixture of abrasives and chemicals should start when a snow accumulation of _____ inches occurs and will be continued until all the roads have been cleared and set back. A.) 2 to 3, B.) 0 to 1, C.) 4 to 6

EMPLOYEE NAME: _____

DATE COMPLETED: _____

SUPERVISOR: _____